An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Bailey on 1-21-2010.

The application has been amended as follows:

Non-elected claims 2, 6, and 17-24 have been canceled.

Claim 1, 3 lines from the end, the section starting with ", or" and ending in the last line with "organic solvent" has been canceled in its entirety.

Claim 13, at p. 7, line 8 the section starting with "or" and ending in line 10 with ", hydrophilic solvent," has been canceled in its entirety.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Note that in the Mazzieri et al reference the ratio of methanol to benzene which gives the optimum yield of reduction product is 0.1.

The Rule 132 Declaration shows that when the above ratio is used in the instant reaction to modify the pure alcohol solvent used by Cornubert et al no improvement in yield of the latter is obtained. This is contrary to the unexpectedly higher yields over Cornubert et al obtained by applicants using the instant mixed solvent.. See Examples 5, 8 and 9 in the specification.

The Declaration shows worse results when the methanol solvent of Ex. 2 of Fosker et al is changed to 0.1 methanol in benzene as solvent as suggested by Mazzieri et al. See comparative Ex. 3 of the Declaration.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Bernard Dentz whose telephone number is 571-272-0683. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon.-Fri. 8AM-4:30PM.
